

IDP/UDP Orientation on 29th March 2014

A

Short Report on
One Day Workshop on

IDP/UDP Orientation & IPR and Patent Search Methodology

Date:29th March 2014

Organized By

Electronics and Communication Department

Government Engineering College, Bharuch

IDP/UDP Orientation on 29th March 2014

Electronics and Communication department of Government Engineering College, Bharuch had organized a one day workshop on “IDP/UDP Orientation & IPR, Patent Search Methodology” for pre-final year students on 29th March 2014. All Pre-final year students of Electronics and Communication Branch had been participated in this workshop. Students acquired the knowledge about how to search the final year project and how to achieve unique problem definition from industries as well as user defined.. They were happy to get such inspiration and put to step ahead with the world and they get the idea how to serve the society at their level with their academic knowledge.

Introductory Speech by Prof. K G Bhuva

Session starts with Introductory Speech by Prof. K. G. Bhuva, Head of Department. Prof. K. G. Bhuva had given an inspirational speech to the student and encourages them about IDP/UDP problems and patent search for final year.

There after the first session had been taken by Prof. M. A. Jajal. He had explained about importance of IPR and patent search in real world and society as well as how one apply for patent.

IDP/UDP Orientation on 29th March 2014

Prof. M A Jajal explaining IDP/UDP Projects

Second session was taken by Prof. S. J. Dawda. He inspire about IDP/UDP project and how one can helpful to industry and society. He also demonstrate that how one can find the unique problem from patent.

Prof. S J Dawda explaining uniqueness about IDP/UDP

IDP/UDP Orientation on 29th March 2014

All pre-final students are gained the knowledge about how one fine good unique problem from industries and patents search. Students enjoyed the session and inspire from workshop.

Students attending the workshop